WHO WE ARE

One of the world's greatest centres for classical ballet training, The Royal Ballet School offers staff a range of opportunities to be leaders in their field, working with dedicated professionals and inspiring students as they prepare for their careers as ballet dancers.

WHAT WE OFFER

We offer competitive salaries across all departments in line with industry standards.

We offer a variety of benefits for staff including free staff yoga classes, knowledge sharing sessions and a variety of discounts at local businesses.

We offer a culture of openness, transparency and diversity, where both students and staff are nurtured to thrive, encouraged to lead and developed to succeed.

We offer an ethos where the wellbeing of both students and staff is paramount, incorporating cutting-edge technology to be a true leader in our field.

We offer the wider community opportunities for engagement and support through our outreach programme, opening up ballet for everyone.

We offer unrivalled places of work, from the inspiring setting of former Royal residence White Lodge in Richmond Park, to the hustle and bustle of artistic Covent Garden.

We offer opportunities for collaboration, to forge meaningful connections with colleagues, alumni and other organisations globally.
