Other You will be expected to attend Inset as and when required.

SAFEGUARDING DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and recognises that safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is everyone's responsibility. The School expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment to children's safeguarding and to share this child-centred approach. This approach means that staff must consider, at all times, what is in the best interests of the child. Additionally, the following is expected of all staff:

- To uphold the School's policies relating to safeguarding and child protection, behaviour, health and safety and all other relevant policies
- To promote and safeguard the welfare of children and young persons for whom you are responsible, and come into contact with
- To report any safeguarding concerns using the relevant channels, such as informing the Designated Safeguarding Lead, in a timely and appropriate manner
- To ensure full compliance with all statutory regulations, in particular the most recent Keeping Children Safe in Education, and communicating concerns to the Designated Safeguarding Lead, other relevant staff of

The Royal Ballet School or local children's services as appropriate.

MAIN DUTIES

This list should be seen as illustrative rather than prescriptive

- Teach one-to-one lessons in the desired discipline(s) at White Lodge, ensuring that 27 lessons (per discipline) of 40 minutes are carried out per academic year.
- Prepare students for ABRSM examinations / similar as required, including preparing them for sight-reading and aural tests.
- Draw up a weekly timetable of lessons, following procedures according to the detailed workings of the Ballet and Academic schedules at White Lodge. As the Royal Ballet School is primarily a ballet-training school for young, aspiring dancers, a degree of flexibility will be required with timetabling lessons at specific points in the academic year.
- To explore the option of running a small ensemble, depending on the scope of instrumentalists available in any academic year (this would be remunerated separately).
- Perform at musical events if required by the Lead Teacher of Music (these will be remunerated separately).
