WORK AT THE ROYAL BALLET SCHOOL

ABOUT US

We are a global organisation with an important mission: to nurture, train and educate exceptional classical ballet dancers and to set the standard for dance training worldwide.

As a boarding school, a performing arts organisation and a charity, our team is varied. Our staff have specialist skills in dance, academics, pastoral care, healthcare, outreach, marketing, fundraising, and operations - to name a few.

We look for committed, enthusiastic candidates who demonstrate the skills and experience we need.

People are the key to our success - we attract, retain, develop and motivate the best in their fields to share our commitment to providing excellent care and education for our aspiring dancers and dance teachers.

OVERALL PURPOSE OF THE ROLE

The UK Scholars Programme introduces the School's System of Training to talented young students who are Mid Associates studying at private ballet schools. We believe that live music is an essential part of ballet training, and accompanists play an important role in supporting classes.

SUMMARY OF THE ROLE

The post holder will provide piano accompaniment for UK Scholars classes for The Royal Ballet School in Manchester.

MAIN DUTIES

This list should be seen as illustrative rather than prescriptive;

- To accompany UK Scholar ballet classes, character and music classes
- Personal preparation to learn the pieces required and provide suitable music as required by the teacher
- Correct professional etiquette and courtesy to be always maintained with students and staff
- To support the class teacher as necessary
- Any other duties may reasonably be required and that fall within the scope and range of the job.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

ESSENTIAL CRITERIA

- Ability to accompany a range of classes, including classical and character dance
- Good sight-reading skills
- Good communication skills with adults and young people
- An ability and willingness to be a flexible member of the team
- Professional, courteous, well-presented and punctual
- Empathy with the values and ethos of the School.

DESIRABLE CRITERIA

- Relevant experience in accompanying classes in an educational environment, and vocational setting.

SAFEGUARDING DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and recognises that safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is everyone's responsibility. The School expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment to children's safeguarding and to share this child-centred approach. This approach means that staff must consider, at all times, what is in the best interests of the child. Additionally, the following is expected of all staff:

- To uphold the School's policies relating to safeguarding and child protection, behaviour, health and safety and all other relevant policies
- To promote and safeguard the welfare of children and young persons for whom you are responsible and come into contact with
- To report any safeguarding concerns using the relevant channels, such as informing the Designated Safeguarding Lead, in a timely and appropriate manner
- To ensure full compliance with all statutory regulations, particularly the most recent Keeping Children Safe in Education, and to communicate concerns to the Designated Safeguarding Lead, other relevant staff of The Royal Ballet School or local children's services as appropriate.

We are committed to creating an environment where all our employees feel part of our team and can flourish, regardless of their background. We're proud to be an inclusive workplace that promotes and values diversity.

The information detailed here about this role should not be considered encompassing. Over time, the emphasis of the job may change without changing the general characterisation of the role or the level of duties and responsibilities. This information will be periodically reviewed and revised in consultation with the postholder.
